

INCREASED TROUBLES IN CUBA CAUSE OF ALARM

CHICAGO'S MILK SUPPLY REDUCED BY DAIRY STRIKE

Efforts To Break Up the Blockade In North Illinois Fail

Chicago, Sept. 15—(AP)—Strike objectors seeking to break the blockade of dairy farmers picketing against delivery of milk to Chicago met defeat in their first skirmish today.

Four trucks loaded with milk and each carrying eight men attempted to reach a receiving depot at Harvard, center of the strike area 50 miles northwest of Chicago. Several scores of picketers forcibly hauled the trucks. A few cans of milk were spilled and one driver hauled from his seat. A few threats, and then the trucks turned about and started for home.

There were few other instances of violence, but half a dozen large milk receiving depots were at a standstill as farm women joined their husbands and sons in the picket lines.

Strike leaders claimed the movement was spreading, and that soon Chicago's milk supply would be cut in half. From the other side came declarations that the strike had been broken, that farmers generally had decided to continue selling milk until a higher price could be authorized from Washington.

Three Plants Idle
Not a drop of milk was delivered to pasteurizing plants and receiving depots at Hampshire, Crystal Lake and Cary. Deliveries were reduced to a minimum at Burlington, Harvard and Dundee.

All of the towns have large plants where dairymen deliver thousands of pounds of milk a day. Chicago distributing companies then haul the product to the city in tank cars for ultimate delivery to consumers. Dealers met with officials of the Pure Milk Association today to draft an amendment to the milk code for the area which would increase the retail price one cent a quart, to 11 cents, the increase to result in the farmer being paid 2.20 a hundred pounds for milk, instead of $1.75.

The amendment will be sent to the agricultural adjustment administration at Washington for approval.

Dixon Hunters Have Made Preparations For Coming Season

Several Dixon duck hunters have leased ponds in the vicinity of Green river for the fall hunting season, and are busily engaged in making them ready for an active season. The state Department of Conservation is sending out notices to all of these private preserves asking for the payment of the regular hunting club fee of $10.

The notices also call attention to the limit of ducks that will be permitted this season as follows:
"The season will extend from noon, October 16 to sundown Dec. 15, with a bag limit of 12 and a possession limit of 24 mallards, and a bag limit of eight and possession limit of 16 of the rarer species. Baiting and feeding will be permitted under the provisions of information now available."

Decision On State Dental Act May Be Given On Saturday

Belleville, Ill., Sept. 15—(AP)—Circuit Judge Maurice V. Joyce said today he hoped to announce tomorrow his decision on arguments concerning legality of the new amended Illinois state dental practice act.

Judge Joyce yesterday heard the pleas of attorneys for a group of dentists, who asked that a temporary injunction against enforcement of the act be made permanent, and of the state which opposed the plea.

The state, represented by Assistant Attorney General John J. Neiger, asserted the complaint of the plaintiffs is without basis, and that the act is legal.

Principal objection to the legislation is concerned with a clause preventing advertising.

The eastern division of the national road, from Cumberland to Wheeling, cost $13,000 a mile, a staggering sum in 1827.

St. Louis Health Commissioner Believes He Has Broken Back Of Sleeping Sickness Epidemic Now

St. Louis Sept. 15—(AP)—A belief that "we have broken the back" of the sleeping sickness epidemic was expressed today by Dr. Joseph Breckel, St. Louis Health Commissioner.

The Health Commissioner predicted the epidemic would taper off much more slowly than it spread, probably requiring twice as long to end as it did to reach its peak.

The epidemic began to subside

Terse Items of News Gathered in Dixon During Day

ON NRA ROLL

The names of S. E. Stanfield, City Steam Laundry; and J. N. Becker's service station, R. F. D. 1, have been added to the local NRA employers' honor roll.

BUYS POLO BUSINESS

R. B. Stevens, who has many friends in Dixon and who has had the concession at Lowell Park for the past three years, had just taken over the restaurant connected with the Smith Oil Station in Polo.

SANITY HEARING

A commission of physicians was sitting in the county court today at a hearing being conducted before Judge William Leech to determine the sanity of David T. Miller, Bradford township farmer. The hearing adjourned at 11:30 until 1:30, there being several witnesses to testify.

COURT WILL CONVEY

The grand jury for the September term of the Lee county Circuit Court has been ordered to report Monday afternoon at 1:30 before Judge Edwards who will preside during the term. Several cases are to be submitted to the grand jury by State's Attorney Edward Jones for investigation.

GET FINE PIKE

Local fishermen are getting some fine pike out of Rock River here. Wednesday evening Arthur Travis caught one of the wall-eyed variety which measured 21 inches in length and weighed four and one-quarter pounds, while yesterday afternoon Jesse Seyster hooked one which measured 16 inches.

BROTHERS ARE DOCTORS

Dr. Arthur Y. Lazar announces the opening of his office at 115 Galena avenue over the Manhattan cafe where he will be associated with his brother, Dr. Armand Lazar. The former received his education at Coe College, Cedar Rapids, Iowa, where he graduated with his B. S. degree in 1926. He graduated from the Chicago Medical school in 1932 and served his internship at St. Margaret's hospital at Hammond, Ind., from July 14, 1932, to Aug. 31 of this year.

MT. MORRIS MAN HURT

Harry Maguire of Mt. Morris, editor of the Outdoor Life magazine, sustained painful injuries this morning shortly after 6 o'clock when his Packard sedan skidded from the Black Hawk Trail paving near the Black Hawk bridge and crashed into a ditch. He was badly cut about the face and head and was taken in another car to Oregon where his injuries were dressed, after which he was removed to his home in Mt. Morris. His car was also badly damaged and was towed to a garage to undergo repairs.

THREE CARS IN CRASH

Three cars figured in an crash on the Black Hawk Trail east of the city near the Ed Myers garage last evening about 4:30. One of the machines driven by Oliver Hoff was overturned and badly damaged. Mrs. Hoff was cut about the face with broken glass and was taken to the Katherine Shaw Bethel hospital where her injuries were dressed and then removed to her home. None of the others were badly injured.

The three cars driven by Oliver Hoff, Ollie Joseph and Louis Knick were headed east. The latter was reported to have turned out to pass Hoff's car and in so doing to have caught it with the hub of his car, turning it over. In overturning, the Hoff car crashed into the side of the Ollie Joseph machine, damaging a fender and denting the body.

Dr. Clarence T. Wilson Says Drys Of Nation Have Plans

Chicago, Sept. 15—(AP)—A prediction that prohibitionists will yet defeat the repeal of the eighteenth amendment was made by Dr. Clarence True Wilson, secretary of the Board of Temperance of the Methodist Episcopal church.

Addressing a session of the World Fellowship of Faiths last night he said "the drys have plans."

"We expect to rally through the church, the school and the home. The home loving women, the church people of the evangelical denominations and the parents and grandparents who are becoming alarmed and anxious about their children," he said.

PROTEST HIGH LICENSES

Chicago, Sept. 15—(AP)—Protests against the proposal to levy a $2,500 license fee on intending sellers of hard liquor were registered today before the legislative commission which is seeking to formulate a system of liquor control in anticipation of the repeal of prohibition.

The commission is holding a series of hearings to obtain the ideas of various interested groups, and one of the suggestions made was that of the $2,500 fee, intended to restrict the number of hard liquor handlers.

Representative David E. Shanahan of Chicago, was one who protested. He urged that it would work a hardship on small town businessmen. John P. Harding of Chicago pointed out that an exorbitant license fee would force the price of liquor so high that bootleggers would again be able to make a profit.

Other speakers urged that liquor sales be permitted in places where beer is sold and that the fee be fixed as low as $250. E. H. Crown of Chicago, importer, suggested a four per cent sales tax.

Home Coming For Amboy Parish To Be Event Sunday

The annual homecoming of St. Patrick's Catholic parish, Amboy, will be held at the Lee county fair grounds Sunday and over 600 are expected to attend.

The special attraction of the day will be the kittenball game between Maytown and West Brooklyn in another ball game.

Other attractions are bicycle races, foot races, Boy Scout relay races, boxing bouts, an exhibition by James Shanahan an Olympic winner in the shot put, and dancing in the evening.

Charles Reynolds, Husband Of Former Dixon Belle, Dead

Mrs. W. C. Durke this morning received a telegram from Hawley Wilbur of Waukesha, Wis., announcing the death during the night of his brother-in-law, Charles Reynolds, at a tuberculosis sanitarium near Milwaukee, where he had been a patient for over a year. The message did not give any details concerning funeral services, but it is thought rites will be held at the home of the deceased in Waukesha Sunday or Monday.

Mr. Reynolds will be remembered by many Dixon people as a likeable and capable young man, whose wife was Miss Lorna Dement, daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Charles Dement and one of Dixon's belles. Mrs. Reynolds and one daughter, Avis Jane, survive.

Orders Attorney Sapiro Given Over To Ill. Officials

New York, Sept. 15—(AP)—Supreme Court Justice Julius Miller today ordered Aaron Sapiro, New York Attorney under indictment with Al Capone in Chicago, turned over to Chicago authorities and granted him until midnight to perfect an appeal for a stay.

The hearing before Justice Miller was taken on a habeas corpus writ, taken by the attorney after extradition to Illinois had been granted by Governor Lehman of New York.

The indictment charged him and 24 others, including the Chicago gang leader now in Atlanta penitentiary, with conspiring in Cook county, Illinois, to fix prices in four lines of business by threats of violence.

Santa Barbara, Calif., received so many inquiries it is considering manufacturing for sale the metal policemen developed to stand in the street and warn autoists of the various school crossings.

Scrap issued by Pendleton, Ore., bears illustrations of local history including the face of a sheriff killed by outlaws.

FIRST ENTRIES IN HORSE SHOW ARRIVED TODAY

Many More Expected Before Show Opens Tomorrow P. M.

Entries for the Dixon Saddle Club's first annual show began arriving this morning and many head were expected to be registered before the close of the day. The show will be presented at the high school athletic field Saturday and Sunday afternoons and is expected to attract a large attendance. Fancy riders, high school horses, ponies and a big field of rodeo stock has been entered for the two-days program. The early arrivals were being received at the Manges shed until the time of the show, they will be taken to the field where a large tent will be set up for their accommodation during the program.

Indications for warmer weather today and through the week end brought forth prospects of a large field of entries and a huge crowd of spectators. The program which has already been announced in detail will not be altered in any respect and those planning to attend are assured a fine entertainment on both days. The crowning of the equestrian queen, who will receive a beautiful loving cup donated by William E. Trien, will be on of the added features of the Sunday afternoon show.

It was estimated that there would be more than 30 head of horses entered in the various departments, judging from the entries which were arriving since early morning and continued throughout the day. Other entries were promised tomorrow morning and up until the noon hour.

Camp Of Chicago Youths On Green River Broken Up

Seven Chicago youths, ranging in age from 14 to 23 years, who came to Dixon several days ago, then went south of State Route 89 about 15 miles to camp in a tinber near Green river, bunked last night in the county jail. Three of the campers were taken in custody by Chief of Police J. D. Van Bibber last evening and four more were hauled out of camp by Sheriff Fred Richardson and Chief Van Bibber last night, all being gathered at the county jail. Some of the boys admitted entering a building at the Assembly Park grounds and removing a large piece of canvas and tent stakes which they appropriated for their cause and which formed the shelter of their camp near Green River. It was expected that the entire camping party would be sent on their way back home today.

SEVERE WINDS ARE SWEEPING IN FROM OCEAN

High Water Is Also Predicted By Weather Bureau Today

(By The Associated Press.)
Steady rain, little less than torrential, drenched the Atlantic seaboard today and the Weather Bureau said it would keep on raining through tomorrow, and maybe longer.

Baseball games were postponed. College football practice was called off. Air schedules were disrupted. Air mail had to be discontinued.

Newark N. J., suffered flooding of cellars and sewers and at least one industrial plant there was damaged greatly by the flooding of a boiler room.

Tropical hurricanes blew toward the Texas and Carolina coasts. Warnings were hoisted from Wilmington to Hatteras. The center of the disturbance was expected to reach North Carolina late tonight.

The rain started day before yesterday in New York.

VIRGINIANS WARNED

Norfolk, Va., Sept. 15—(AP)—Storm winds were predicted for the Virginia coast tonight and the Weather Bureau warned residents occupying slightly built structures to move out during daylight without waiting for the storm to strike.

The danger from wind rather than from water was emphasized by the Weather Bureau.

The bureau said there would be high water with the wind coming from the same quarter as it blew during the last storm, but that it would not be as high, owing to tidal conditions.

Winds reaching great force with raging seas swept the waterfront and flooding the low areas were feared.

Wind Will Increase
John L. Murphy, government meteorologist in charge of the Norfolk Weather Bureau, said today that the wind would increase all day but at what hour the storm would reach here could not be definitely told.

"It was about 200 miles off the coast to the south and east of Wilmington and moving in a direction that would cause it to strike with its greatest force between Wilmington and Charleston," said the meteorologist.

"It is moving at a rate of between ten and 12 miles an hour."

This estimate would bring the full force of the storm here by 6 A. M. tomorrow but as the storm is accompanied by gales of hurricane force in its center, wild winds can be expected here as early as midnight, he said.

Tampico, Mexico, Sept. 15—(AP)—A tropical hurricane struck the Mexican coast at 9:00 A. M. today extending on a line from Tampico to a point midway between this city and Matamoros.

The center of the disturbance was north of Tampico, with a maximum wind velocity of about 75 miles per hour. The wind blew at a 64-mile clip here in a north-west direction.

No damage was immediately reported here. Plane service was halted.

Chief White House Usher Is Mourned

Washington, Sept. 15—(AP)—President Roosevelt today arranged to attend funeral services for Irwin H. Hoover, Chief Usher at the White House, who died suddenly last night of a heart attack.

These will be held tomorrow afternoon in the chapel of Glenwood cemetery and will be conducted by the Chief of Army Chaplains, Julian E. Yates.

Mrs. Roosevelt is returning from her camp in the Adirondacks for the service, and James Roosevelt, eldest son of the President, also is coming.

Mr. and Mrs. Roosevelt offered the White House for the service; but the family of the deceased decided to hold only a very simple service at the cemetery.

Ford To Employ 5,000 Veterans In Detroit Works

Detroit, Sept. 15—(AP)—Rex Humphrey, Commander of the Wayne county (Detroit) Council of the American Legion, announced today that the Ford Motor Co. had authorized him to employ 5,000 war veterans for the company's Detroit plants.

Humphrey said 300 veterans a day will be hired by him beginning Monday, until the quota is filled. The Ford Company declined to make any comment on the employment.

Humphrey said that all men hired must produce papers to show that they have a fine war record.

Detectives' Claim For $1,000 Against Lee Co. Tabled For Time Being

Band Concerts, Etc., Barred From Court House Property

Band concerts are one form of entertainment that the building committee of the Lee county board of supervisors will no longer tolerate on the county property, believing that a continuation of the practice will cause great injury and damage to the lawn and walks surrounding the court house. A resolution which the building committee presented to the county board yesterday afternoon stated the above conditions, and added that the committee bore no animosity or prejudice to the band organization, but was taking this action only for the preservation of the beauty of the county property.

There were but 16 members of the board present when the resolution was presented as the first of several subjects to be given consideration by the board during the afternoon and its adoption was unanimous.

Band concerts have been held at the court house square for many years, as have other programs of entertainment which have now been halted.

The claims committee presented their report and list of bills to be paid, among which appeared one from the McWeeney Detective agency of Chicago, the name of which organization is said to have appeared before many county boards of counties in this section of the state recently. The company is seeking to collect a bill of $1,100 for liquor investigations conducted in Lee county in 1931.

Sheriff Fred Richardson told the board that the head of the firm spent part of Wednesday afternoon in Dixon conferring with him and former State's Attorney Mary C. Keller, after a suit had been started against the Sheriff to force payment of the claim. The Sheriff stated that the McWeeney agency had threatened suit and told the board that about $5,000 was collected in fines from offenders caught in the series of investigations.

"I refused to sanction payment of the claim until after this conference with Mr. McWeeney, Mr. Keller and myself on Wednesday afternoon," Sheriff Richardson told the board. "I thought that the bills of the investigators had been padded as they were originally charged to the county and I refused to sanction the payment of these claims until after this meeting Wednesday. The original bill of the McWeeney agency was about $1,900 and this was reduced to about $1,100."

The bill was tabled by the board for further investigation.

City Attorney Martin J. Gannon of Dixon appeared before the board and explained the plan of the city to secure and construct a sewer disposal plant west of the city under the Federal aid program and sought their support in securing the easement of lands lying west of the west city limits which are necessary for an extension of First street to the proposed site of the plant.

Supervisor D. H. Spencer told the board members that later it would be an absolute necessity to take this action which is now asked by the City Attorney and pointed out that the county was in no way obligated. He urged the road and bridge committee to submit a favorable report and assured the supervisors that the Dixon township officials would cooperate to the fullest extent.

Application for county aid in the construction of concrete box culverts for Sublette township, in the sum of $588.70 and Reynolds township, $949.23 were read to the board and after some delay the proposals were unanimously allowed.

Vacate W. C. Road
A resolution from the road and bridge committee sought to vacate a portion of roadway along the Paw Paw spur in Willow Creek township as a state aid road.

Supervisor Knetch of Paw Paw led the opposition to the closing of this section of road and demanded a roll call of the board on the proposition which resulted in a vote of 15 to 10 to vacate.

The judiciary committee presented a report recommending the application of Stanley Masters, William Simpson and Emma P. Cooke for blind pensions, which were granted by the vote of the board.

Supervisor Charles Ramsell of China township, called to the attention of the board the practice of former years in the furnishing justices of the peace throughout the county with copies of the Illinois statutes. This was referred to the purchasing committee for a report.

Estimates for Treasury receipts from January to the end of next June, when the fiscal year closes, he said, were extremely favorable.

Increases in tax receipts, all along the line he said, were most encouraging. Repeal of prohibition which he said he thought most probable, would go far toward balancing the budget.

FIGHTING WITH BLOODSHED ARE REPORTED TODAY

Washington Is Apprehensive As Disorders In Island Grow

Washington, Sept. 15—(AP)—Increased trouble in Cuba sharpened official apprehension today lest outbreaks threaten American life and property in a manner to require American troop protection.

State Department officials received word of violence in various sections, coupled with threats of far spread strikes, but declined to speak publicly of the delicate situation.

Some sources received a report that an army captain, two lieutenants and 80 followers had seized the town of Pinar del Rio, along with arms and ammunition.

It related that the troops had distributed weapons among the inhabitants and prepared for an anticipated attack.

Hear Strike Rumors
So far as was known here, no American were in the town, which is only 105 miles to the southwest of Havana.

Still other private advices told of the American, French and Spanish Consuls from Santiago paying a visit of inspection to the manganese mines at Cristo, where twelve Americans are held virtual prisoners. The situation at Cristo, however, was reported to have improved slightly within the past 24 hours.

No word was available in official quarters as to the possibility of a general strike in Havana, such as the one leading to the downfall of former President Machado. Food supplies were said to be plentiful there, even though a strike of warehouse workers had sent prices soaring. There was confirmation here of threats of a general strike, but no more definite word.

HENRY WARNER HEADS JUDICIAL DIST. BAR ASSN.

Next Year's Meeting Of Society To Be Held In Dixon

Attorney Henry Warner of Dixon was yesterday afternoon chosen president of the Sixth Supreme Judicial Bar Ass'n., at the annual convention held in Sterling, and it was voted to hold the 1934 meeting in this city. Other officers elected were: Lowell B. Smith, Sycamore, vice president; John R. Snively, Rockford, secretary; and Charles H. Edwards, Aurora treasurer. Former Circuit Judge William J. Emerson of Oregon was named to the Board of Governors.

Dixon lawyers in attendance at yesterday's meeting were: A. H. Hanneken, George C. Dixon, Robert Dixon, Harry Edwards, A. G. Harris, Mark C. Keller, Gerald Jones, Morey C. Pires, W. T. Terrill, Clyde Smith, R. L. Warner, H. C. Warner, Gertrude Youngman and J. C. Ryan.

WALGREEN CREED

We believe in the goods we merchandise, in ourselves and in our ability to render satisfaction. We believe that honest goods can be sold to honest people by honest methods. We believe in working, not waiting—in launching, not weeping—in boosting, not knocking and in the pleasure of selling our products. We believe that we can get what we go after, and that we are not down and out until we have lost faith in ourselves. We believe in today and the work we are doing—in tomorrow, and the work we hope to do, and in the sure reward for which the future holds. We believe in courtesy, in kindness, in generosity, in cheer, in friendship and in honest competition. We believe in right.

Birds That Laugh

Our green woodpecker is famous for his ringing, laughing call, but of all birds it is the kookaburra, or laughing jackass, a large Australian kingfisher, which laughs most heartily. Australia has also a laughing owl, as the white-throated nightjar is called, with notes so like pealing laughter that one laughs to hear them. The lyre-birds of Australia imitate the laughter of the kookaburra, and any other sound they hear—human laughter, the screams of a pig, in its death throes, the noise of a horse or dray, complete with the rumbling of wheels and the rattle of chains, the buzzing of a saw or the swish of a coach driver's whip. Several of our gulls have a laughing cackle, while the penguins called "jackass" utter a laughing, braying note all through their nesting season, laughing from dawn till dusk.

Japan exported three times as much yarn in 1932 as in 1931 to set a new record of two billion square yards of cotton cloth exports.

Eckener Arrives To Arrange For Trip To Chicago

New York, Sept. 15—(AP)—Dr. Hugo Eckener, grizzled skipper of the Graf Zeppelin, paused in New York today enroute to Akron, Ohio, long enough to let it be known that clearing financial skies assured him for a future trans-Atlantic airship service.

He landed from the liner Ilamburg for a brief stay here to prepare for the Graf's visit to Chicago next month and to discuss with airship and business heads the subject nearest his heart—an oceanic Zeppelin line.

Ruddy-faced his blue eyes set off by stiff white hair and military goatee and mustache, Eckener said he would stay in the United States about ten days before returning to Germany to skipper the Graf Lark via South America.

"Tekla" Pearls Man Made

Tekla pearls are made from a species of Hungarian fish that is found in Lake Balaton, which contains radium in its waters and quantities of gold fish. A kind of whiting and sheat supply the scales used for the manufacture of "Tekla pearls."

There are two laboratories on the lake shore at Siofok and Ponyod, where microscopic crystals are extracted by a treatment with ammonia from the scales scraped off the fish. The product is the raw material of the "Balaton pearl essence."

Glass beads receive a coating of this essence, which lends them that warm, glossy shine that makes it so difficult to the eye to distinguish "Tekla" from genuine pearls. The coating, however, is not done in Hungary, but mostly in the pearl laboratories of France, Spain and Japan. It is the essence which is exported from Hungary, or the scales themselves, salted down in barrels.

Antimony Widely Used

Antimony, of the non-rusting and non-tarnishing metals, plays an important part in industry. Perhaps its most important use, at any rate the use which daily affects more people than any other, is its use in type metal. It has a low melting point, melting at 800 degrees. It finds its way into medical use in the form of tartar emetic, tartar antimony being widely used in medicine. Antimony oxide and antimony sulphide mixed are used to color glass and porcelain yellow, while in a form known as butter of antimony, antimony chloride, it is mixed with olive oil to give a brown color to gun barrels.

Antimony is usually found in the sulphide form, particularly in France, where large quantities are smelted. Antimony is also produced in Borneo, California, Nevada, Mexico, and New Brunswick—Washington Star.

Nervous ills—Dr. Aydelotte.

fully Oct. 30.

The government based its hopes of ending the widespread strikes on the promise of an 8-hour day and a minimum wage scale throughout the country.

The Capital itself was threatened with another food shortage as the administration heard rumors of other armed resistance and tightened the lines about 500 former army officers still besieged in the National Hotel.

Fighting And Bloodshed

Fighting and bloodshed, mutiny and rebellion were abroad as President Grau San Martin announced a calling for "absolute independence and national sovereignty, a perfect adjustment of political and economic interests," and general elections for a constitutional convention.

Warehousemen were on strike in Havana. Already prices have soared because of this and a field workers' walkout in adjacent provinces, and authorities foresaw a growing scarcity of food.

Strikes Are Reported

Employees of the Havana Electric Railway were at odds over the allotment of work, and officials said the situation was not encouraging.

The powerful OCR secret society instituted a consumers' strike against the electric and telephone rates. The government was asked to intervene. Drug store messengers were on strike.

An inspector for the Stevedores Syndicate was killed by unidentified persons in a passing automobile. Street fighting was reported in Matanzas. In Cardenas and Cienfuegos (where all stores were closed) racial enmity ran high.

Talk of another general strike, such as the one that paralyzed almost every sphere of activity and forced the eviction of Gerardo Machado's administration, went on.

Americans Besieged

In Ciego, 12 American officials of manganese mines were held as actual prisoners by striking employees. The American Consul from nearby Santiago surveyed the situation today. Other residents of the province gathered for safety at American colonies near Santiago. At several sugar mills through the island, officials were said to be besieged in their homes by strikers.

The situation at the National Hotel was acute. Telephone wires to the hotel were cut. Motorists were not permitted to stop near the building. Whether any American guests remained inside could not be learned.

The officers, overthrown by their own men in a revolt against the regime of Carlos Manuel de Cespedes and in favor of a revolutionary junta, continued firm in their insistence that the new President Ramon Grau San Martin, give way to Dr. De Cespedes.

Armed with machine guns, rifles and pistols, they maintain they will fight it attacked.

With shouts and waving red flags, workers in Santiago forced the Mayor and Governor to resign and the resulting situation was called "disturbed." An Army sergeant was said to have taken over the Santiago city hall.

Posters again attacked "Yankee imperialism."

Annual Reunion Schumacher Family Elect Officers

On Sunday Sept. 10, at the hospitable home of Mr. and Mrs.
Leonard Stevens of the Kingdom,
the annual reunion of the Schu-macher family was held.

At noon a fried chicken picnic dinner was partaken of, to which all did ample justice. In the afternoon watermelon and ice cream were served.

The day was spent in visiting and in a general social way.

Election of officers for the coming year was held with Mrs. Leonard Stevens elected president; Mrs.
Herbert Schumacher secretary; and Chas. Schumacher as treasurer. The program committee is Mrs. Ray White, Mrs. Henry Bruhn, Mrs.
Frank Barkley.

Those in attendance were: Mr.
and Mrs. Chas. White, Mr. and Mrs. Orville White and son of Walnut;
Mr. and Mrs. Roy White and family of Sterling; Mr. and Mrs. John Bruhn and son William, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Bruhn and daughter of New Bedford; Mr. and Mrs. Tom Henrd of Manlius; Mr. and Mrs.
Chas. Schumacher and family, Mr.
and Mrs. Frank Barkley and son, Yorkville; Mr. and Mrs. John Morris Woodbine; Mr. and Mrs. Ed
Hill, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Schu-macher and family, Mr. and Mrs.
Herbert Schumacher and family,
Dixon; Mr. and Mrs. William
Morris and family, Mr. and Mrs.
Leonard Stevens and son, of Kingdom.

Visitors were Mr. and Mrs. Wm.
Westfall of near Aurora, old time
friends of the Schumacher family.
As evening drew near all departed for their homes with many pleasant memories. In another year, the

Reunion Wisman Family on Sunday

A very delightful reunion of the Wisman family was held Sunday at the pretty country home of Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin Richwine near Franklin Grove, the pleasant event
honoring Mrs. Mary E. Vezze, York, Pa., Mr. and Mrs. E. J.
Ranall, and Mr. and Mrs. Craford Thomas and son Wayne of Dixon; Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Nickey and son Stewart, Glen Ellyn; Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Wisman, sons Burnell, Arland, Mr. and Mrs. Milford Wisman, daughter Jacqueline and son Charles of Ashton.

Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin Richwine and daughter Neva, Mr. and Mrs.
Raymond Burhenne and daughter
Janice, Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Blocher, son Leland and daughter
Ila, of Franklin Grove; Grace
Richwine of Dixon; Mr. and Mrs.
George Lahman, son Kenneth, and daughters Olive, George and Adaline, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Guber and son Gale of Oregon; Mrs. Floyd Grady, son Jackie, daughter Judith of Mt. Morris and Dale Hodge of Franklin Grove.

Kent-Kaufman Wedding Solemnized

Elizabeth Kent, daughter of Mahlon and Caroline Kent was married to Elmer B. Kaufman of Freeport at 12 o'clock noon Tuesday in a pretty single ring ceremony at the home of F. N. Vaughan in Amboy. The Rev. R. W. Merrifield of Muscatine officiated.

The bride wore a navy blue ensemble with accessories to match, and carried bride's roses. Preceding the ceremony Mrs. Fred Vaughan, Jr. sang "The Sweetest Story Ever
Told," and following it she sang "I Love You Truly," accompanied by Mrs. R. W. Merrifield.

There were no attendants and no guests. Following the ceremony a wedding luncheon was served. The couple are honeymooning in Chicago.

Mrs. Kaufman has been dental assistant to Dr. Paul M. Breyer of Freeport for the past five years.
She was graduated from the Amboy Township High School and is well known there. She lived for some time at Mr. Vaughan's home while attending school.

Mr. Kaufman is the son of Mr.
and Mrs. B. S. Kaufman, 1451
South High Street, Freeport. For the past 13 years he has been connected with the firm of Crum and Forster, Insurance Company in Freeport.

Candlelighters Met With Mrs. H. Higley

The Candlelighters Aid Society of the Presbyterian church held their annual luncheon at the home of Mrs. Henry Higley, 209 N. Galena avenue. There was a large attendance of members and several guests.
After a bounteous luncheon with decorations of lovely fall flowers, which everyone enjoyed much, the business meeting was held and plans were made for the winter months.

The October meeting will be with Mrs. J. F. Young. Out of town guests were Mrs. Myers, Portland, Oregon; Mrs. Will Dewey, Conter-ville, Mississippi and Mrs. Clara Adams, Rockford.

WERE ENTERTAINED AT THE B. C. PHILLIPS HOME—

Mr. and Mrs. Rudolph Lindstrom and daughter Dorothy of Dixon and Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Phillips and daughter Dolores were entertained at supper Tuesday night at the home of Mr. and Mrs. B. C. Phillips.

HER DAY

By HELEN WELSHIMER

SHE cooked the breakfast first of all,
Washed the cups and plates,
Dressed the children and made sure
Stockings all were mated.
Combed their heads and made their beds,
Sent them out to play.
Gathered up their motley toys,
Put some books away,
Dusted chairs and mopped the stairs,
Ironed an hour or two,
Baked a jar of cookies and a pie,
Then made a stew.

THE telephone rang constantly,
The doorbell did the same,
A youngster fell and stubbed his toe,
And then the laundry came.
She picked up blocks and mended socks,
And then she blackened up the stove...
(Gipsy folks were fortunate
With carefree ways to rove!)
And when her husband came at six
He said: "I envy you!
It must be nice to sit at home
Without a thing to do!"

Mrs. Chas. Hanson Entertains H. B. Unit

The Dixon unit of the Home Bureau was pleasantly entertained at the home of Mrs. Charles Hansen, 321 Ottawa ave., for an all day meeting Wednesday, Sept. 6.

A delicious picnic dinner was enjoyed by all, including a number of guests.

The meeting was called to order by Mrs. Earl Auman, the president, and minutes and roll call read and the membership report accepted.
After the other business was taken care of Mrs. Syverud gave the lesson, "Minor Tests Used to Identify the Kind of Fiber Used," and "Developing a Healthy Personality Through Personal Care." This talk was full of excellent ideas on this subject, and then she gave recipes for cold cream, cleansing cream, skin food, hand lotion, excessive perspiration and others, showing a sample of each. She also demonstrated the burning test on samples of cotton, linen, rayon silk, wool and all silk.

The October meeting will be with
Mrs. Earl Newcomb and the lesson,
First Aid in the Home—Minor Christmas Suggestions.

Prairieville Social Circle in Meeting

Mrs. Walter Brauer of Prairieville entertained the ladies of the Prairieville Social Circle on Wednesday, Sept. 13th, in an all day meeting, which was well attended.

A delicious dinner was served at noon, after which the meeting was called to order. Twenty-eight members, seven guests and five children were present. Games were enjoyed and hymns were sung during the following hour.

The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Theodore Behrends on Wednesday, Oct. 11th.

ASHTON WELL REPRESENTED AT ILLINOIS—

Owen Hamel of Ashton who graduated at the University of Illinois last year, returned Sunday to continue his study in Law. Fred Moya Jr. left Monday morning to enter the Agricultural school at the University, and Darrell Romick went to Champaign yesterday to take up Electrical Engineering. Glenn Krug will return Saturday to complete his course in Chemical Engineering.

With Robert Dean, who returned last week to take up his second year in Journalism, Ashton will be represented by five young men at the University of Illinois.

RETURN TO HOME IN THE SOUTH TODAY—

Mr. and Mrs. Cadesman Pope and little son Kay, left by motor for their home in Decatur, Ga., after a visit with her father, E. A.
Patrick, and sisters, in Dixon.

Delightful Chat All About Rain

Olive Roberts Barton sends us
the following charming little article on "Rain:"

"The rain is raining all around,
It rains on field and tree.
It rains on the umbrellas here,
And on the ships at sea."

As I write Outside my window two robins are pulling a wet worm from under the nicotiana.

Beside me my canary is singing a low little rain song from the top of a door (his cage is always open). The air is soft, sweet, fragrant, and the gentle rain drones a tune. A quiet soft day when the earth talks in poetry!

Rain-Reading

On just such a morning as this,
very likely, Stevenson wrote that verse.

Children love little verses. This is the kind of weather to hunt up the books and read them such poems as Rose Fyleman's "Rainy Morning":

"As I was walking in the rain
I met a fairy down the lane,
We walked along the road together.

I soon forgot about the weather,
He told me lots of lovely things.
The story that the robin sings,
And where the rabbits go to school,

And how to know a fairy pool,
And what to say and what to do,
If bogles ever bother you.
The flowers peeped from hedgy places

And shook the raindrops from their faces,
And furry creatures all the way
Came popping out to say
"Good-day."

But when we reached the little bend,
Just where the village houses
end,

He seemed to slip into the ground
And when I looked about I found
The rain was suddenly all over,
And the sun was shining on the clover."

W. H. M. S. Met at Grace Evan. Church

The Woman's Home and Foreign Missionary Society of Grace Evangelical church met on Tuesday at ternoon at the church. The meeting opened with the song "Let the Lower Lights Be Burning." Mrs.
William Joint read the hymn story and then all joined in singing the song.

Miss Lina Miller of Bethany, Kentucky, had charge of the Devotionals.

The leaflet, "With the Crowd in the Road" was given by Mrs. Delbert Rinehart.

Miss Mildred Hartman favored with a vocal solo.

The last chapter of the lesson study, "Indian Americans" was given by Mrs. Ed Graves.

"Program of Progress" was read by Mrs. Clarence Shultz.

Mrs. Sarah Reis read the story of the hymn "Praise God From Whom All Blessings Flow," then all joined in singing the hymn.

Mrs. Ida Jackson gave the closing prayer.

The business session followed after which all were invited to the basement where tempting refreshments were served and a social time enjoyed by all.

Mrs. William Joynt and Mrs.
Clarence Shultz were the hostesses for the afternoon.

Sweet Cider Has Many Good Uses

Roasting cider conjures up thoughts of roasting birds and roasted nuts and country fairs and good times generally, and the cook will find a welcome change in seasonings in this homely beverage.

There are innumerable ways in which sweet cider can be used to add variety to autumn menus.

A small glass of chilled cider will make a pleasant change from orange juice for breakfast.

Cider frappe is delicious with ham and pork roasts.

Cider salad is inviting and seasonal for early fall meals.

Ham baked in cider rivals the traditionally famous ham of Virginia.

Boiled cider in mince pies and fruit cake is a most satisfactory substitute for brandy.

Every grocer carries bottled bottled cider, but if you prefer to make it at home it's not a difficult task.

Cider for Boiling
Cider for boiling must be very sweet, just fresh from the press.
Fill a preserving kettle with sweet cider. As the cider boils away add more cider. Keep replenishing until the whole kettle of cider begins to thicken and becomes syrupy.

Continuing boiling without adding more cider until thick as molasses.
Be careful the cider doesn't scorch
during the last part of the cooking. Pour into hot sterilized cans and seal.

The old rules for boiling cider used four parts of sweet cider to make one part of boiled cider.

One cup of boiled cider will season three mince pies deliciously.

Ham Baked in Cider

One slice of ham cut three inches thick. 1 cup sweet cider, 1 teaspoon mustard, 2 tablespoons brown sugar, 1-4 teaspoon pepper, whole cloves, stick cinnamon.

Let ham stand in cold water for

ECONOMY OR SAFETY?

The past month has brought a number of serious accidents to passenger trains on American railroads; and a good many citizens are apt to wonder if any of these accidents are due to the stringent economies the roads have had to make in the last year.

Has economy, in other words, been carried past the safety mark in certain cases? Have expenditures on equipment, on personnel, on maintenance of way and the like been cut just a little bit too much?

It goes without saying, of course, that the railroads economized because they had to and not because they wanted to. They have had a tremendously hard row to hoe this last year or so. It is very hard to see how the cuts they made could possibly have been avoided.

Nevertheless, the questions raised here need answering—if only to reassure the traveling public. And if government funds should be needed to enable hard-pressed roads to ease up a bit on their economy program, they should be forthcoming.

PLENTY OF GOLD.

Anyone who has been disturbed by the fear that the nation's currency was not backed by an adequate supply of gold will be relieved by news that the Federal Reserve banks now hold more of the yellow metal than at any time during the year, and more than at any time during the two prosperous years preceding the 1929 collapse.

Holdings have increased during the year by $400,000,000 to reach a total of $3,500,000,000, which is more than the reserve banks have had at any period during their 20 years of operation.

Total gold stocks of the country, which includes amounts held by the treasury, are $4,320,000,000.

It may be puzzling to understand why, with all the gold that is available, the country remains off the gold standard. Whatever the answer is to that question, it is comforting to know that the gold is there.

LOST ILLUSION.

Those of us who have to stay at home, and never see the romantic South Seas except in our dreams, realize that those fabled islands under the sun have pretty well lost the peculiar charm which goes with places that have not yet been touched by the white man's civilization. But it was a little bit jarring, just the same, to read that residents of Tahiti have organized the world's first contract bridge yachting cruise.

A yacht has been chartered at Papeete, and with a lot of contract fans aboard it will cruise about among the cannibal islands, the palm-fringed atolls and the other bits of exotic scenery which litter the south Pacific. And as it cruises all hands will devote themselves religiously to bridge.

If the South Seas are devoting themselves to those two ultra-modern callings, yachting and contract bridge, then indeed the old days of romance are gone forever.

WEEKLY SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON

THE GLORY OF SOLOMON

By WILLIAM E. GILROY

"The Glory of Solomon" has become a phrase signifying the greatness of a reign, even as "the wisdom of Solomon" is a tradition among men. Like all traditions there is another side to the story, and the other side came out following the reign of Solomon when it turned out that the people had been oppressed and that they sought relief from their burdens.

Here in our lesson, however, we have Solomon presented in the greatest thing in his reign and in his finest character. He has associated himself with the best religious aspiration of his people. He has led them in the building of a temple which should be for them a holy place and a center of their national worship, and to this temple in our lesson, they have brought the Ark of the Covenant that it may have a permanent resting place in its true and proper environment.

To get the full significance of Solomon's place in the building of the temple we must consider the whole history of Israel up to this period, from the time of the escape to Egypt and the period of wandering in the wilderness. During all that period of wandering, there had been a lack of national and religious consolidation. Saul had failed as king, and Samuel, though he had been the greatest prophet since Moses, had failed to win the loyalty and support of the nation.

The demand for a king was in a measure a refection of the fact that the people did not feel that Samuel had given them adequate leadership. The period of Saul's reign, in which David was involved, was also one of unsettledness.

David himself seemed to represent for a time the leadership of the discontented. But when David became king the evidence of a strong hand in the affairs of state was immediately evident, and though in his tasks of consolidating the state David was so essentially a man of blood that he was not permitted to build the temple, he developed a national strength in which Solomon's plan which he inherited, could be fulfilled.

The full significance of the lesson does not appear in the lesson itself. We must go beyond the lesson to consider the whole story of the building of Solomon's temple—the record of devotion and sacrifice on the part of the people, manifested in their gifts, the fine spirit of craftsmanship that inspired the workers, and the outpouring of high and noble devotion in which the temple was dedicated.

Particular reference should be made to Solomon's prayer at the dedication of the temple, which even if it stood alone, would justify his great place as a man of high aspiration and wisdom.

Perhaps we should conceive of men in their noblest and finest moments, and should think of their sins and excesses only as

OUR FUNNY PHOBIAS

By Dr. Joseph Fort Newton

A phobia is a quirk in the mind, due to some twist or hurt long gone by. It is nearly always a fear the cause of which is forgotten. We did not like to admit being afraid, so the idea was pushed down into the mind, and there it stays—like a wart. It is a kind of baby complex, so to put it, seldom fatal but often funny.

Our phobias are of many sorts. In fact we have well nigh used up the Greek language to find names for them. An example is the ugly jaw-breaking word Claustrophobia; it simply means afraid of being shut in, fear of closed places. A child is shut up in a closet accidentally, or for fun, making it afraid of closed places all of its life.

A neighbor of mine cannot bear the sight of a sharp object, so his wife has to keep all knives hidden away. If she forgets and leaves a paring knife on the table, he almost has a fit. Even Dr. Johnson dared not sleep in the dark, and kept a light burning all night. A fright as a child, no longer remembered, made a dark room a place of terror. One man dreads a crowd, and another cannot endure to be alone.

So we might go on endlessly, if one wanted a preferred list of phobias. Some of us have more than one, and a few can boast a full set. A lot of our prejudices are only phobias, though we call them principles—it is more dignified. They are really due to some idea, absurd or otherwise, fixed in the mind and sealed with an emotion—not to careful thought, as we pretend. They are corns on the mind.

Our phobias are not sinful; they are just silly. If they were physical twists we would go at once and have them attended to. But since they are kinks in the mind, and we have had them as pets for so long, we do nothing about it. They make us queer, crotchety, peculiar, if not ridiculous—disfiguring our lives but we let them go on.

As a matter of fact, a phobia is easily removed if we set ourselves to do it. But that might make us less interesting to ourselves, and less funny to others. So, get a little phobia and enjoy it!

FOOTBALL WAS KICKED RIGHT INTO PICTURE

Training For Teams Of Big Ten Began In Earnest

Chicago, Sept. 15.—(AP)—Football was kicked into a major position on the sport pages of the middle west today.

Training for Western Conference college teams opened today and approximately 500 hopeful candidates reported at the ten schools ready to start a strenuous workout schedule before the season begins. While most of the Big Ten coaches assumed an optimistic attitude toward their chances of winning the race, things looked the brightest on the campuses of Purdue and Michigan. Most pre-season critics agree that the championship of the conference lies between the two.

Activities at the two local universities, Chicago and Northwestern, started at an early hour and the air was full of flying footballs. Thirty-four players turned out at the U. of C. and began taking orders from their new coach, Clark Shaughnessy, who replaced Amos Alonzo Stagg. Shaughnessy has no expectation of winning a championship for the Maroons this season, but he said he would give opponents a battle. He has nine veteran letter men to work with.

55 At Northwestern
A snappy looking bunch of Purple Wildcats reported to Coach Dick Hanley at Northwestern. A count showed there were 55 candidates, including five regulars and 20 reserves from last year. Hanley, too, felt about the title as Shaughnessy. He has several likely sophomore prospects with which he hopes to fill the gaps left by graduation. If they develop as he hopes, Northwestern may once again attain the spotlight it did in 1930 and 1931.

Eighteen lettermen, with a total squad of nearly a half hundred, made everything look easy for Coach Harry Kipke at Michigan, the defending champions. Down at LaPayette, Ind., the Boilermakers' coach, Noble Kizer, had one important problem facing him, the building of a virtually entire new forward wall. He has a "million dollar" backfield on which he bases the Boilermakers' championship hopes.

Contenders Won't Meet
Purdue does not play Michigan this year and the only difficult game looks like that with Minnesota.

At Wisconsin a huge squad reported for the initial practice session and the coaching staff hoped to find from among the candidates three new backfield men and three for the line. Eighteen lettermen checked in at Iowa.

The first conference game is scheduled between Iowa and Northwestern at Soldier Field, Sept. 30.

TWO DOZEN OF BEST TWO-YEAR OLDS IN EVENT

$100,000 Futurity Is Feature Race Of Current Week

New York, Sept. 15.—(AP)—Two dozen of the country's leading two-year-olds will settle the juvenile championship in the 44th running of the turf's richest race, the $100,000 Futurity, at Belmont Park tomorrow.

The mighty Equipoise, the only stand-out thoroughbred of the season, also will be on the program seeking his eighth straight victory of the year in the $5,000 Jockey Club Gold Cup, but for once the little chestnut will have to yield interest to the colts and fillies which have yet to earn their spurs.

Three years ago Equipoise, then just a promising two-year-old from C. V. Whitney's barn, was beaten by Jamestown, carrying the silks of George D. Widener, in the Futurity.

No Jamestown or Equipoise has appeared in "dress rehearsals" for the Futurity this year and as a result, the largest field since Marshall Field's High Stung whipped 23 others in 1928 is expected to face Starter George Cassidy.

With three leading fillies, including E. R. Bradley's Bazaar, winner of the Hopeful, either not eligible or out of training, Mrs. Dodge Sloane's High Quest probably will be the 2 to 1 choice.

Cissell, Indians' Star, Under Knife
New York, Sept. 15.—(AP)—Chalmers (Bill) Cissell, infielder for the Cleveland Indians, underwent an appendicitis operation early today at New York Postgraduate hospital.

Afterward, an announcement at the hospital said his condition was "very good."

The ball player was taken to the hospital about 1 A. M., and the operation was performed soon afterward.

Her Croquet Mallet Fells Bandit

A bandit who pointed a pistol at four croquet players in Meade, Kan., and demanded the keys to their auto, found he had made a mistake when Mrs. Anson Horning, one of the players, swung at him with her mallet and knocked him out. Shown above are Mrs. Horning, with her trusty mallet, and the captured bandit—who gave his name as D. E. Potter of Cincinnati—with the imprint of her weapon on his head.

FRISCH DENIES HE 'LAID DOWN' ON 'OLD SARGE'

Former Manager Of St. Louis Cards Made Accusations

St. Louis, Sept. 15.—(AP)—A statement by Gabby Street, recently removed manager of the St. Louis Cardinals, that Frankie Frisch did not "put forth his best efforts" for him, today brought a sharp denial from the present manager, who said he "just can't understand why 'the Old Sarge' would say those things about me."

Declaring "I am getting tired of being made the goat for the poor show of the Cards in 1932 and the slump this year," Street said at Joplin last night that he sought to assess a fine of $5,000 on Frisch and suspend him last year.

"I felt," Street said, "that Frisch was not putting forth his best efforts. Bredon (Sam Bredon, Cardinal president) vetoed the plan, saying 'Frisch might quit the Cardinals like he quit McGraw.'"

"I've belonged to seven pennant-winning teams and have always given the best that was in me," Frisch asserted. "I feel my record as a ball player speaks for itself. I did everything I could to assist Street when he needed moral support through the club's slumps, and I've told him to stick with the job and bear down on 'em."

Street also said Frisch and Pepper Martin, Cardinal third baseman, had an argument in Pittsburgh this spring after Martin had made the accusation Frisch "was not hustling."

"I've never had the least bit of trouble with Pepper," retorted Frisch. "Some folks just don't appreciate how hard you work for them, but—oh, well it's a tough life and I know it. Still I just can't understand why 'the Old Sarge' would say those things about me."

Do You Remember?

One Year Ago Today — Miss Payne Whitney's Twenty Grand captured the Irish Lad purse at Belmont Park in a driving finish with Masked Knight.

Five Years Ago Today — Elizabeth Grobes, high school girl, set a new record in the girls' broad jump at New York, leaping 17 feet 10 inches.

Ten Years Ago Today — Bill Tilden won the national lawn tennis singles for the fourth consecutive year.

Young Corbett Is Seeking Post As Patrol Instructor

Sacramento, Calif., Sept. 15.—(AP)—Champion of the welterweights six months ago, Young Corbett, 3rd, hopes to become physical instructor of the California Highway Patrol.

Corbett recently announced his retirement from the ring after being knocked out by Jimmy McLarin. He was recommended for the position by E. Raymond Cato, Chief of the Patrol.

"I wanted a chance to get out of the fight game," said Corbett, "and this looks like the opportunity."

Old Race Horse Wins Purse And Saves His Home

Cincinnati, Sept. 15.—(AP)—Abe Furst is a horse whose races have been many, but slow. To aging O. G. Brown, Abe was a last hope.

City Sheriff James Burgess appeared yesterday at Browns home.

"Mr. Brown," said Burgess, "we have an attachment on Abe and we are serving it on you. We must take the horse."

The debt was $100.

Brown looked despairingly at the sky, which was gray with rain. "Won't you let him run today?" he entreated. "I'm sure he'll win."

The third, a claiming race, at Coney Island yesterday offered a purse of $600. The Sheriff retained Abe Furst, a winner. The debt is paid.

Veteran Starter At Lincoln Fields Sees Lower Purses

Chicago, Sept. 15.—(AP)—The day when handicap stars will race for $500 purses is not far off according to Harry Morrissey, veteran starter at Lincoln Fields.

Racing associations can no longer afford to hang up boom time purses and the gradual reduction of prize money which is taking place now will be increased Morrissey declared.

"If you ask present day owners to race in a handicap for a purse of $600, as they did years ago, they would laugh at you," he said. "The race would not fill. But it's coming back to that and owners who scoff the idea now, will be mighty glad to gain employment for their horses at that level in the near future."

MUCH FUR WILL FLY IN OLD NEW YORK THIS FALL

Taxes, Mayoralty Campaign, Law Suits Are In Offing

New York, Sept. 15.—(AP)—A legal rapier flashed out of Wall Street today to fence with a tomahawk. On the sidelines sat a man whetting a battle-axe, his black eyes blazing, his lips saying nothing, except:

"This is going to be no pink tea." That, in short, was the politico-economic line-up as the big town got ready for a municipal campaign. The betting was heavy that fur will fly before snow-flies.

The rapier, threatening lawsuits, was the brokers' answer to Tammany's determined try to hack off, for city taxes, a chunk of the gold that passes through Wall Street. The dark-eyed one was none other than Fiorello H. La Guardia, fusion candidate for Mayor, spectacular campaigner, sworn to "get" Big Chief John F. Curry and all his Tammany braves.

May Move Exchange
The financial heart of the nation pumped so with excitement and exasperation that it was threatening to burst and fly apart, with mutterings that a portion of it—in the form of a new, tax-free stock exchange—would end in New Jersey.

Money troubles tell much of the story. The city, its citizens flailed by depression, found taxpayers calling for relief and thousands on thousands of jobless seeking help. There came a time when the city found itself resorting to short-term loans to avert a fiscal debacle.

The bankers would grant the loans and say "economize." The last time the city went to the well the lid was on. No loan.

"Waste and worse did it," said Tammany's critics. "Get rid of the useless jobholders."

"It's for the unemployed and necessary," said Tammany's friends. Samuel Untermyer, elderly lawyer, famous investigator of the stock market in the Puko inquiry years ago, appeared as the city's fiscal adviser.

Blow to Wall St.
He devised a means to raise $40,000,000 by taxation. The program dealt Wall Street a blow—taxes on brokers' incomes and stock transfers. Taxes also on public utilities, savings banks, and insurance companies.

"Boo!" cried stock market marchers in the NRA parade as they came to the stand where Mayor John P. O'Brien stood; the Governor of New Jersey invited the stock market to move over, tax-free.

"Contemptible," said Untermyer, of that invitation.

Yesterday, the Board of Aldermen approved the tax program, which is due to be signed Sept. 21. It includes besides the taxes mentioned, levies on taxi riders and a boost in the water rates.

"It's for the unemployed," Tammany said.

"It's to repay bankers' loans," said Alderman Baldwin, lone Republican.

Stock brokers, cried Alderman Hart, Democrat, are "crashshooters and cheats."

Untermyer, turning now to economy, moved to lop $2,225,000 off of official salaries.

The Association of Stock Exchange firms engaged lawyers today to test the legality of the new taxes. The threat to move to New Jersey received less emphasis for the time.

Up to now La Guardia has taken no part in the conversation between Tammany and Wall Street. But he said yesterday:

"This is going to be no high school debate, no pink tea."

High Tackle Wins Supporters Among Football Coaches

Detroit, Sept. 15.—(AP)—The high tackle, which is finding favor among football coaches this fall, is seen by Coach Charles E. "Gus" Dorais of University of Detroit as the logical development of a trend that began during his playing days at Notre Dame.

As long ago as that, he recalled, "we began to get away from the spectacular 'flying tackle.' The chances of missing a man were a lot greater when the tackle aimed low and when the runner didn't come down any quicker."

Dorais, who was a team mate of the late Knute Rockne at Notre Dame, is convinced that a tackle about the waist is not only most effective, but safest, as it keeps the tackler's head out of range of the runner's pistol-like knees.

Dizzy Dean First Holdout Of 1934 Baseball Season

St. Louis, Sept. 15.—(AP)—Talkative Jerome Herman Dean came forward today as the first holdout of the 1934 baseball season.

While, of course, Dizzy's holdout isn't official yet, the strong-armed Cardinals pitcher said he had been negotiating with club officials for more than a month and that they are more than $5,000 part.

"I don't think I'm asking too much when I set my figure at $15,000," Dean said. "While I don't want to take credit for drawing all the fans who see our games, I believe I draw most of them on the days I am scheduled to pitch."

Dean said his 1933 contract called for $7,500, plus a $1,000 bonus for signing it.

SAYS FARMERS GET MORE OUT OF FOOD RETURNS

A Government Official Quotes Figures To Prove Claim

Washington, Sept. 15.—(AP)—Farmers apparently are getting more money out of increased retail food costs, but the Agricultural Adjustment Administration today listed his average prices still below the desired parity with industry.

Dr. Fred C. Howe, consumer's counsel for the administration, reported a 47 per cent increase in farm prices between February 15, and August 15. His analysis said prices on things the farmers buy advanced 11 per cent in the same period.

Taking the 1909-14 period as 100, Howe said the increase put the August 15 index of farm prices at 72 against 112 for what the farmer purchases.

"While we have reduced the gap between these two prices," Howe commented, "we are still a long way from parity in prices for farmers. x x x

Generally, the farmers are getting the benefit of the extra money consumers are paying out for food. From a study of 41 municipalities Howe listed variations in retail prices paid for the same foods. He said consumers "might well ask their distributors why they must pay more than consumers pay elsewhere for these essentials."

Rockford Man Has Alimony Payments Reduced By Court

Las Vegas, Nev.—Alimony payments of Willard H. Ashton, wealthy Rockford, Ill., merchant, to his estranged wife, Cora, now of Los Angeles, were reduced from $80 to $45 a week by Judge J. Emmett Walsh. Ashton is suing for the divorce and trial in the case was set for October. Attorneys for Mrs. Ashton, an invalid, said she required $400 a month for expenses and cited as among her expenses, $92 a month for rent, $45 a month for shoes, and $50 a month for a maid. The case has been in the courts four years.

Beechley Elevator Burned Last Night

Springfield—A fire that destroyed the Beechley grain elevator south of here thrust the town of Davenport and adjoining territory to the east into darkness when a high tension power line was burned in two. The elevator was owned by Noah C. Twist of New Berlin, and the loss from the blaze was estimated at more than $10,000. The structure was empty.

Henry Co. Tells World: Has Cash Balance On Hand

Kewanee—Officials of Henry county want to tell the world that for the second successive year they have a cash balance on hand. The balance is $13,944.06 with all debts paid. Besides that the county has accounts receivable totaling $53,000.

U. I. Enrollment Is Higher By 250

CAMPAIGN—Permits to enter the University of Illinois increased by approximately 250 this year over last. Acting President Arthur Hill Daniels said in an address of welcome to students. The total, he said, was more than 3,600.

ALL-BRAN RELIEVED HIS CONSTIPATION

Delicious Cereal Brought New Health to Mr. Bartholomew

We quote from his voluntary letter: "I had considerable trouble with my stomach. Digestion was out of the question. I got medicine which gave me only temporary relief."

"Then I thought of taking ALL-BRAN. I started eating a cereal dishful two or three times a day."

"It has been over a year now since I ate that first dish of bran, but from that day to this I have had the pleasure of enjoying the proper functioning of the digestive organs."

"Thanks to ALL-BRAN. I still eat it regularly and like it better all the time."—Lester Bartholomew, Cadillac, Mich.

Constipation is usually due to lack of "bulk" to exercise the intestines, and vitamin B to promote elimination. ALL-BRAN supplies both, as well as iron for the blood.

The "bulk" in ALL-BRAN is much like that of leafy vegetables. Certainly this food is more natural than taking harmful patent medicines. Two tablespoonful daily will overcome most types of constipation. With each meal in chronic cases. If not relieved this way, see your doctor.

Lutheran Laymen To Meet In Mount Morris Thursday

Lutheran laymen from the Dixon group of the Northern Illinois Brotherhood will gather at Trinity Lutheran church, Mt. Morris, next Thursday for the second group meeting. The first meeting was held in Dixon in June.

The Dixon group is one of four comprising the Northern Illinois Brotherhood of Lutheran Laymen. It includes the laymen from the Dixon, Princeton, Oregon, Polo Mt. Morris and Nachusa churches.

William Wickey of Dixon is the chairman. An interesting program has been prepared by the entertaining Brotherhood at Mount Morris and a cordial invitation is extended to all Lutheran laymen to be present.

Geneseo Orders Poles Off Street

Geneseo, Sept. 13.—Geneseo city council, in regular session last evening, passed an ordinance ordering the Illinois Northern Utilities company to vacate the streets of the city, and within a period of ninety days, to remove its poles, wires, and other property used in connection with its electric light and power system. The company was to be notified of the action of the aldermen, today.

HENRY ABT GROCERIES AND MEAT

(READ THE STORY, THEN COLOR THE PICTURE)

The pet canary Duncy had was very tame and it seemed glad to hop around the youngster's hand. Said Duncy's "Geel! I'm great. This bird does anything I say. The little fellow likes to play. I'll bet that I can make it sing a song for you. Just wait!"

Then Duncy whistled, long and shrill. He kept on doing it until the yellow bird chirped several times and then began to sing.

The notes were pretty as could be. Said Duncy, "Why, it sings like me. Just watch its throat bob up and down. It is a clever thing."

"Of course it's clever," Duncy cried. "And now a nice trick will be tried. The bird will enter its fine cage, as soon as I say go."

The other Tines watched until he shouted "go." Then, what a thrill. The bird flew to its perch and started swinging to and fro. "Fine work," cried Coppy. "Now watch me. Another little treat you'll see, if you'll wait just a minute while I get a puppy pet."

"It's in the dog house," Goldy cried. "Go right ahead and reach inside. I want to see you train a pup. You can't do it, I'll bet."

"Ha, ha!" laughed Coppy. "You're all wrong. Now, all stand back where you belong." And then he called the small pup out. Right up to him it ran.

The friendly parrot bobbed his head. "That dog's already trained," he said. "Just hold a hoop so it can jump. I'll do the best it can."

Wee Duncy found a hoop nearby. He held it and shouted, "Try to leap right through it, puppy. Give the Tynmites a treat."

The little pup looked 'round and then, the Tines started cheering when it leaped right through the hoop. "Geel!" Duncy cried, "that sure was neat!"

(The pet cat gives the Tines a surprise in the next story.)

CUBS' RECORD ON HOME FIELD IS FAVORABLE

Grimm's Boys Refuse To Be Counted Out Of Tight Race

By HUGH S. FULLERTON, Jr.
(Associated Press Sports Writer)

Regardless of whether they succeed in their uphill struggle to overtake the New York Giants in the National League pennant race—and their chances look better today after two straight victories over the league leaders—the Chicago Cubs at least can point with pride to their record at Wrigley Field this season.

When they put on a ninth uprising yesterday and took their second rainy day decision from the Giants, 4 to 2, the Cubs lifted their home game percentage to .765. They have won 32 and lost only at home 16 so far. This record compares well with that made by the New York Yankees last year when they won 62 of their 77 home games on the way to the world's championship.

The Giants, still 5½ games ahead after yesterday's defeat, have won 46 and lost 22 at home for a .676 percentage but they have been considerably more successful than Chicago on the road. The rest of the program seems to be a test of the Giants' consistency and the Cubs' ability to keep on winning at home. New York has nine more road games, including doubleheaders at Chicago today and tomorrow, and seven at home while the Cubs play only two of their remaining 13 games away from home.

Aim At Six Straight

Aiming at six straight victories over the Giants, the Cubs were out to get two of them yesterday, but after braving rain and cold for one contest, the second was postponed to make a doubleheader Saturday. The weather played a big part in the one contest as the combination of chilled fingers and a slippery ball made fielding difficult. But despite these handicaps the teams managed to pull off seven double plays. The final decision, however, was reached on Cub hitting after errors on both sides and a "boner" by Manager Bill Terry of the Giants had figured prominently in the scoring that sent them into the ninth inning with New York leading 3-2.

Eliga Stephenson opened the last frame with a single. Babe Herman sent the "Old Hoss" to third with a pinch double and then young Adolph Camilli was purposely passed. Gabby Hartnett squared off against big Fred Fitzsimmons and smashed a hit into centerfield to bring in the winning runs.

Senators Boost Lead

While the National League race was closing up, the Washington Senators increased their lead in the American to nine games over the Yankees. The Senators landed on Vic Sorrell for three hits and coupled them with two walks to score three runs in the ninth and defeat Detroit, 4 to 3. Earl Whitehill earned his 21st victory. The Yankees' game with Cleveland was rained out as was the St. Louis-Philadelphia contest.

Like the pace-setters in their league, the lowly Phillies and Cincinnati Reds started out to play a doubleheader and got through only one game, the Phils winning

Fans Puzzled In Considering Bout At Comiskey Park

BULLETIN

Chicago, Sept. 15.—(AP)—The 10 round fight between Jack Sharkey of Boston and King Levinsky of Chicago, scheduled for tonight at Comiskey Park, was postponed until next Monday because of threatening weather.

Chicago, Sept. 15.—(AP)—King Levinsky, the wild swinging puncher from Chicago's Ghetto, will attempt to prove himself to be the stumbling block on Jack Sharkey's comeback trail tonight when he meets the former world's heavyweight champion from Boston in a 10 round bout at the White Sox ball park.

Sharkey is setting out to disprove the adage "they don't come back" and once again sit on the throne he occupied until blasted off by Primo Carnera. For his efforts tonight the ex-fighter will receive $25,000 with the privilege of taking 40 per cent. Promoter Jimmy Wolf expects at least 15,000 fans with the box office receipts near the $50,000 mark.

As weighing in time approached today fans became more and more puzzled as to just what sort of a battle it would turn out to be.

Pastor Lambert comes to Dixon to take the place of Pastor Paul D.
Jordan, who has gone to Youngs-burg, Ohio. Mr. Lambert comes not as a stranger as he was pastor at Solo, Illinois for three years and has many friends in and around his section. Having been brought on the farm he knows something of country life and loves the country greatly. He has been pastor in Chicago for nine years, also help
Apostates in Akron, Ohio; Newark,
J. and other important centers
the country.

Union Drainage District No. 1 of the Townships of Hamilton, Lee County, Illinois and Hahnman, Whiteside County, Illinois. The Sixth installment with interest at the rate of six per cent per annum from February 1st, 1933 until paid.

I, J. E. MAU, Supervisor of Hamilton Township and Treasurer of said Drainage District do solemnly swear that the foregoing is a true and correct list of the delinquent lands within said Union Drainage District No. 1, of Hamilton Township, Lee County, Illinois and Hahnman Township, Whiteside County, Illinois upon which I have been unable to collect the 6th installment. Interest and printers fees charged thereon as required by law for the year or years therein set forth and this said special assessment now remain due and unpaid as I verily believe.

J. E. MAU, Treasurer and Ex-Officio Collector for said Drainage District.

Certificate of Publication State of Illinois, County of Lee, I certify that I am the advertising manager of the Dixon Evening Telegraph, a public newspaper of general circulation, published daily except Sunday in the City of Dixon, Lee County, Illinois, which said newspaper has been regularly published at least six months prior to the first publication of this notice, and I do hereby certify that the preceding delinquent special Drainage Taxes on lands in Union Drainage District No. 1 of the Townships of Hamilton, Lee County, and Hahnman, Whiteside County, Illinois, were published in said newspaper on the 15th day of September A. D. 1933, and in each and every copy printed on said date for general circulation and distribution to all its subscribers and to the general public, and that said list was carefully compared and found to be correct.

GERMAN PRISONER FLEES FRENCH CAMP

Soldier Says He Was Held Captive Since 1916.

Berlin.—An exchange of notes between Germany and France may follow the return home of a German soldier believed to have been killed in the battle of the Somme 16 years ago.

Oscar Daubmann, whose name is engraved on a monument in honor of the war dead of the village of Endingen, returned home after an adventurous escape from a French prison camp in Africa. He told German government officials who cross-examined him, he had been held there since 1916. A disquisition, now begun, may result in a diplomatic controversy between Berlin and Paris.

A short time ago the French government informed the French all prisoners of war had been discharged. This definitely put an end to all hopes on the part of many Germans that their relatives, reported to have been killed or missing in France, were still alive and being held in African prison camps.

Daubmann's return home now has aroused these hopes anew. Governmental officials have been swamped with innumerable letters by relatives of soldiers killed in the war, asking the government to make new, more thorough inquiries.

Daubmann's return, on the other hand, has become the center of varied comment by newspapers. Those favoring Franco-German reconciliation doubt his story. Nationalist organs sharply demand an inquiry, railing against France. The fact that officials of the reich have taken up the matter has given the case considerable prominence. Daubmann's return was turned into a monster nationalistic demonstration. Over 3,000 villagers awaited the soldier's arrival at the railway station. Brass bands and wild cheering greeted him when he stepped from the train.

Parents ill. His aged mother fainted. His father sank to his knees as he grasped his son's hand. Daubmann himself was so weak that he had to be carried home. All festivities planned in honor of him had to be called off.

The soldier's story of his capture and final escape from Africa has been termed "weird and fantastic" by numerous newspapers. "This is what he recounted: 'I was taken prisoner by the French on the 21st of October 1916, after being severely wounded. After recovering from my wounds I was transferred to a prison camp.'

"There I made an attempt to escape. I killed a guard who tried to block my way. I thereupon was sentenced to 20 years' hard labor in the French colonies."

"In Africa I again tried to escape. I was caught and put in chains. Following a term of solitary confinement I was put to work building roads. Then I was transferred to the prison labor shop for good behavior. There I finally was able to make my escape."

For the LOVE of EVE by Lucy Walling

BEGIN HERE TODAY

EVE HAYLASS, pretty assistant to EARLE HANSEN, advertising manager of Bixby's department store, marries DICK HAIDER, a construction superintendent. Dick wants Eve to stop working but she refuses.

Unknown to Dick, Eve plays the stock market on borrowed money. ARLENE SMITH, stenographer at Bixby's, buys stock on Eve's advice but loses all her money. SAM HOLLERIDGE, a construction superintendent, is introduced with Arlene.

Mona Allen, copy writer, dislikes Eve and is responsible for several errors at the office for which Eve is blamed. The building on which Dick has been working is completed and his employers tell him they will begin to more work for him for at least two months. He and Eve spend a brief vacation visiting Eve's parents. The day after their return a policeman comes to the store and asks for "Miss Haylass." Eve discovers that Mona Allen gave Eve's name instead of her own when she was questioned following an automobile accident. The affair is straightened out but Eve, humiliated by a trip to the police headquarters, is resentful.

Eve is ungracious about Dick's frequent disagreements.

NOW GO ON WITH THE STORY CHAPTER XXXV

THE second week in September Dick received his summons to return to work. He was to superintend construction of a group of hospital buildings in an eastern state. Work was to begin immediately and would last many months. A year at least—perhaps longer.

His departure left Eve dazed with astonishment and grief. She had not really believed he would go without her. Until the very moment when he swung aboard the train taking him away she had held steadily to the hope that he would yield to her wishes and remain in Lake City or else masterfully carry her away with him.

Tears misted Eve's eyes as the train pulled out of the station. Blindly she made her way to a taxi stand.

In the taxi some inner voice prevented her from yielding to the impulse to weep unreservedly. She was thankful for this restraint when, just as she had turned the key in her door, Mrs. Brooks appeared in the hall and invited her to make a fourth at bridge.

Eve wanted to refuse. She wanted to lock her door against the world and relieve her doubts and loneliness in tears. But she knew Mrs. Brooks was trying to be friendly. She had planned the bridge, Eve suspected, to help her through that first lonely evening. So she managed to smile and answer, "Why, how nice of you, Mrs. Brooks! I'll be glad to come, of course. Just give me time to powder my nose and slip into another dress."

FILM ACTRESS SAYS SHE WILL NOT PAY BALM

Claire Windsor Plans To Marry To Evade Big Settlement

Los Angeles, Sept. 15.—(AP)—Ordered by a Superior Court jury to pay Mrs. Marian Read $75,000 for alienation of affections of her former husband, Alfred C. Read, Jr., Claire Windsor said today she would marry, if necessary, to escape paying the judgment.

Attorneys for the blonde actress said a motion for a new trial will be made within the next few days. They said they were ready to carry the case to the state Supreme Court.

The verdict against Miss Windsor was returned late yesterday by a jury of seven women, and five men amid cheers and handclapping of courtroom spectators.

"I have no money and rather than to go to work that Mrs. Read may collect I will get married again," Miss Windsor said with half a laugh. "I can't understand it all."

Calls It "Shame"

"All I can say is that it is a shame," Read said. "I testified it was my fault, and it was. I am awfully sorry for Claire."

"Oh I am so happy," Mrs. Read told the jurors. "Thank you, thank you all so much."

Read, in the witness chair, had shouldered the blame for Miss Windsor's troubles when he admitted making love to her while as a single man and then telling her he was separated from his wife and planning a divorce. He denied Miss Windsor had pursued him.

Mrs. Read, in her testimony, accused Miss Windsor of enticing her husband to leave her. The jury deliberated three hours. The judgment was one of the largest of its kind recorded in southern California courts.

SAFE, HAPPY

Bewhiskered, but safe after being lost in the Timagami Forest of Ontario more than a week, Ward T. Van Orman, balloonist, is pictured after he and his companion, Frank Trotter, were rescued and brought back to Blue Lake en route to their home in Akron, O.

BALLOONISTS RESCUED FROM CANADIAN WILDS

Haggard and exhausted by their ordeal Ward T. Van Orman and Frank Trotter balloonists lost for more than a week in the Timagami Forest Reserve, 100 miles northeast of Sudbury, Ontario, are shown above as they were being brought back across Blue Lake toward civilization. Paddling in the rear of the canoe is James Barrett, line repairman who found the missing men after they chopped down a telephone pole. Van Orman sits next, and beside him is Trotter. Harrison, another of the rescue party, is in front of the balloonists, and Frank M. Burns is wielding the paddle in the bow.

POETS' CORNER

HEPERUS

Thrice welcome gentle star
Companion of the cheerless, evermore Like pearly bark on blue waves floating far
Last from some lovely shore.

The poet loveth thee,
And wins from thee those thoughts
so pure and high
That gem the rosy heaven of poesy
As thou dost gem the sky.

And woman holds thee dear:
By trysting tree—in cot, or lordly
hall,
She knows thou weav'st some spell,
at day-light's fall,
To bring the loved one near.

The faithful deem thee fair;
And when thy white rays down the dusk air fall,
On each pure beam ascends a silent prayer
To Him who loveth all.

Yet art thou all my own;
And when the gray and crimson kindly blend,
I watch beside the casement, quiet
alone,
The coming of my friend.

Through this small window-pane
Such tender glances thou dost give to me,
As beamed in eyes I ne'er shall see again!
They look from heaven, like thee.

And as I sit and dream;

Thine image blends with his, my long lost one
Till thou no more art distant; nay, dost seem
An angel at my side.

And thus thou art to each;
There is no coldness in thy trembling kiss,
Thou com'st with silent love, more sweet than speech,
To sorrow, and to bliss.

Beautiful mystery?
My grateful spirit draweth near to one
Who placed thee smiling in the darkling sky
A visible benison.

I see how perfectly Within each soul, the sacred sun
may shine;
I know the great Heart of Eternity
Feels each faint throb of mine.

Mrs. Charles Florabelle Throon,
Grand Detour, Ill.

When Cecil Rhodes was 18 the doctors gave him just six months to live. He clung to life until he was 48, became the incarnation of the empire builder, told friends that the world would remember him for at least 4000 years and led in establishing the Union of South Africa.

And on this side of the Atlantic we remember him chiefly because a number of American boys go to Oxford each year under Rhodes scholarships.

All of which, probably, indicates that a good biography of the man is badly needed, and such a biography is at hand now in "Cecil Rhodes," by Sarah Gertrude Millin.

Rhodes' ill health was possibly one of the big factors in his accomplishment. He knew he did not have long to live; he had to work fast, he had to jam many deeds into a few years. He was enormously ambitious. What he wanted was nothing less than extension of the British empire over the whole earth, and to achieve that end he was willing to discard ordinary morality.

Bribery, deception, force — all were part of his weapons. He started out with the support and trust of the Boers, and wound up by helping to bring on the Boer war. He befriended the natives, then crushed them, then befriended them again. And whether you admire or despise him, he built an empire in Africa.

He was, in short, the incarnation of the Kipling hero; and if he does not loom quite as large now as he did a few years ago, it is only because an ironical fate has robbed Kipling heroes of much of their glitter. Imperialism doesn't look the same as it used to. But in any case, Rhodes is well worth reading about.

Daily Health Talk

THE TRYING AGE—II

Childhood and youth as a whole are emotionally characterized by the quickness with which they react, liking or disliking according to their unchecked impulses.

There is little discrimination
during this period of life and little balanced judgment. The child is not inclined to forego an immediate pleasure or to suffer an inconvenience in the present in order that it might benefit at some future date.

The child would rather play than eat and is not easily persuaded by the arguments that it must eat in order to grow well. It would rather stay up than go to bed and does not appreciate the obligations
it owes to its own developing body.

Nevertheless, the child must in time be taught to discipline its reactions and its impulses. The situation is rendered particularly difficult because it is the obligation of the parent to conserve the personality of the child and at the same time to teach it obedience.

A domineering discipline and punishment will undoubtedly avail in the end to make any child obedient. Such procedure, however, may break the spirit of the child and may render it rebellious, obstinate, unhappy and may give rise to a variety of behavior difficulties.

Most children can be made to behave in an acceptable manner by gentle persuasion and through the instrument of affection. Children crave affection above all things. They strongly desire approval. They wish to be thought good, intelligent, pleasing — in a word, to be loved.

The wise parent uses this hold on the child to gain the desired ends. Winning the love of a child, however, is an active and not a passive process. The parent should go out of his way to express and manifest his affection for the child in act, speech and gestures.

Once having addicted the child to approval it is easy to control its behavior. For then withdrawing approval and substituting therefor disapproval becomes an effective type of persuasion and punishment.

WAKE UP YOUR LIVER BILE—
WITHOUT CALOMEL

And You'll Jump Out of Bed in the Morning Rarin' to Go

If you feel sour and sunk and the world looks punk, don't swallow a lot of salts, mineral water, oil, laxative candy or chewing gum and expect them to make you suddenly sweet and buoyant and full of sunshine.

For they can't do it. They only move the bowels and a mere movement doesn't get at the cause. The reason for your down-and-out feeling is your liver. It should pour out two pounds of liquid bile into your bowels daily.

If this bile is not flowing freely, your food doesn't digest. It just decays in the bowels.
Gas bloats up your stomach. You have a thick, bad taste and your breath is foul, skin often breaks out in blemishes. Your head aches and you feel down and out. Your whole system is poisoned.

It takes those good, old CARTER'S LITTLE LIVER PILLS to get these two pounds of bile flowing freely and make you feel "up and up." They contain wonderful, harmless, gentle vegetable extracts, amounting
when it comes to making the bile flow freely.

But don't ask for liver pills. Ask for Carter's Little Liver Pills. Look for the name Carter's Little Liver Pills on the red label. Recent's sub-
